ECHO

With the passing of time, the echoes of our school life will grow fainter and fainter, and then die away. Gone forever will be the routine of school life, the fun we had, and the friends we made. It is the hope of the 1959 Orange and Black Echo Staff that, as you glance through this book in the years to come, you will recapture those moments--and the echoes will begin again.

Good Luck Judy

ADMINISTRATION

Fellow Students:

May each of you have a happy and successful life. To you graduating Seniors, who have been practicing for four years, you are now getting into the "game". We hope you score often as the drama of your life unfolds.

To the undergraduates, keep practicing your fundamentals. For one day, soon, you shall be on your own, calling signals in your own game of life.

Good luck.

Pat D.

Judi,

I think I'll write this upside down to be different. I hope you will always remember all ~~the~~ fun we've had - the long walks and talks and our little gossip sessions - they were alot of fun weren't they? I truly wish you wouldn't have to leave because we've had so much fun together and I'll miss you. We'll work very hard on the annual and try to make it a great success for you. I hope you will come and stay with me next year and write to me alot. I wish you the best of luck - you really don't need it. - I hope you will have as many friends wherever you go - as you have had here. Keep up the good work in band and in your studies. Oh of course good luck with the boys. Keep your nice smile and friendly ways and you will go a long ways.

Louise

P. S. Let's have alot of fun this summer!

Reserve

Dear Judi,

Tho we have had our fights and differences, but for the most part it has been loads of fun. I guess I'll have to get used to going to church by my self because that's what I'm going to have to do. I'm really sorry you won't be here next year (not just because of church).

I guess you've had your share of boys and crushes here in Hillsboro and I hope you have even more wherever you go.

Louise and I will finish making the 1960 annual a grand success. You already have a very good start on it. I garuntie you your favorite friend (I think you know who I mean) will not be included on the staff.

I'll miss you but I wish you the luck of luck and friends next year.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1959, being of sound mind and body, do respectfully bequeath the following cherished possessions to the hereby named, and unsuspecting, underclassmen:

Joan Blaha wills her ability to be seen and not heard to Layne Hammer, Jarry Glick, Leon Shore, and John Goodman.

Carol Braithwaite leaves her postoffice abilities to her sister, Elaine.

Patricia Breidenstein wills her ability not to go out with the same boy twice to Lois Chalupecky.

David Clausius leaves his sense of humor and 'love' of Mr. Voelz's classes to any junior that can enjoy it as he does. (And get away with it.)

Barbara and Mary DeChant leave their sewing abilities to the future Home Economics classes.

Shirley Durkee leaves her ability to take everything as it comes to Mr. Cary.

Virginia Eastman leaves her appetite, while not gaining a pound, to Duane Lorch.

Jerry Ellis leaves his interest in Wonewoc to Tom Cesnik and Dennis Degner.

Gordon Fick wills his griping to any dissatisfied junior. (Are there any?)

Lawrence Filter wills his scholastic ability to one of those struggling sophomore boys.

Leona Fisher wills her ability to hold two guys at once to Loretta Eastman.

Budde Fitch leaves his bashfulness to Bill Richardson.

Don Fronk wills his good looks and manners to Harry Nemec.

James Greeley leaves all the hard work of the annual, and the panic button, to some unsuspecting soul.

Judy Heding leaves her 'love' of snakes to June Lewis.

Joyce Herbeck wills her attraction to out-of-town boys to Pat Coy.

Shirley Hooker wills her pleasant smile to all those that dislike Monday mornings.

Lorene Johnson leaves her fondness for the underclassmen to Alyce Subera and Janet Vitcenda.

Josephine Lange leaves her voice to the future sopranos of the chorus.

Dick Lewis wills his dancing ability to the freshmen boys.

Sharon Lorch leaves all those interesting notes to next years floating hour Social Problems class.

Carol Machovec leaves the kiss-proof lipstick and handbook on going steady that was given to her by Myrna Strait, to Karen Subera.

Janice Mitchell wills her ability to have fun at her own parties to Cliff Carpenter.

Judy Nelson leaves her giggles to Louise Janousek--who really has plenty of her own.

Donna Parkhurst leaves her height to Lewis Patterson.

Jean Pliner leaves her fondness of writing letters (in Social Problems) to Laura Sprauge.

Mary Pliner wills her love of schoolteachers (elementary) to----well, I guess she'll keep him.

Joan Preslik leaves her way with the boys to Yvonne Haugh.

Nancy Ravenscroft leaves her cheerleading ability to Sandy Nelson.

Earle Robinson leaves his quiet ways to those that insist on running through the halls.

Elaine Sebranek leaves her night-life to anyone that can stand the strain.

John Shaker leaves his football shoes to anyone who thinks he can fill them.

Lyle Shaker (at Mr. White's request) is leaving his tone on the cornet to Cyril Hotek.

Karen Shear leaves her clarinet playing ability to anyone who can afford the reed bill.

Francis Sinkule wills his "lady-killer" style to Bill Filler and Tom Butler.

David Sparkman leaves his little black book (empty, of course,) to Richard Benish.

Paul Stanek leaves his '49 Chev to his brother, Leonard. (If it lasts that long.)

Frank Stekel leaves his attitude of girls to anyone wanting to lead a lonely, but carefree, life.

Doris Stanek leaves her fair complexion to the freshmen girls.

Steve Subera leaves his talent for coming late to school every morning to Phil Eastman, who doesn't do so badly himself.

Bill Turnipseed leaves his vast knowledge of the Civil War to anyone caring to become a rebel.

Richard Verbsky leaves his hairdo to Johnny Sprauge.

Beverly Waldron wills her soft voice to all the junior study hall students.

Geneva Winchell bequeaths her position of good-will ambassador to Valley to Jarry Glick.

Ben Wopat leaves his innocent act, when he gets in a tough spot, to Mary Verbsky.

Sharon Wyman leaves her car to Dave Schell and Karen Subera.

Judy Zahn leaves the color of her hair to Barbara Anderson, in case Barbara runs out of natural color.

In addition we wish to leave our scholastic ability to the juniors, our participation in activities to the sophomores, and our leadership to the freshmen.

To our advisors, Mr. Voelz and Mrs. Patterson, the rest of the faculty, and Mr. Shold, we leave our highest esteem and respect, hoping they will remember our good traits and overlook the bad.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1955 the class of '59 entered the doors of Hillsboro High School for the first time. Everything was so strange! The bewildered students elected the following class officers: Jim Greeley, president; Lyle Shaker, vice-president; and Sharon Wyman, secretary-treasurer. We proudly sent Frank Stekel and Thelma Eldred to represent our "greenhorn" class in Student Council. At Homecoming we were represented by Sharon Wyman and Lyle Shaker. Next came the Junior Prom. Carol Braithwaite and Bob McIntyre were our representatives for this event. In addition to getting adjusted to high school life that year, we also suffered through initiation. Our dreams were of the following year when we would do the initiating.

In 1956 we returned to the halls of H. H. S. We were no longer "greenhorns" - we were mighty sophomores! The year began with the choosing of our officers. They were Frank Stekel, president; Carol Braithwaite, vice-president; and Judy Nelson, secretary-treasurer. We sent two more experienced representatives to Student Council, Lawrence Filter and Geraldine Liska. Initiation went smoothly and we found it was even more fun being the ones to give the orders. Carol Machovec and David Clausius represented the sophomores at the Homecoming festivities. When Valentine's Day rolled around, our class started a new tradition that everyone enjoyed - we sponsored a Sweetheart Dance with a court of honor. Our "sweethearts" were Jean Pliner and Steve Subera. Geraldine Liska and Frank Stekel represented us at the Junior Prom. Presently, another successful year came to a close and was now just a memory.

Three months later we entered the familiar surroundings as juniors. We were already formulating plans for Prom and were eagerly awaiting the things to come. After careful consideration, we chose our officers. They were Steve Subera, president; Paul Stanek, vice-president; Carol Braithwaite, treasurer; and Shirley Hooker, secretary. Our Student Council representatives were Lyle Shaker and Mary Pliner. Virginia Eastman and Francis Sinkule did our class honors at Homecoming. Soon afterwards, we became proud possessors of shiny new class rings. Steve Subera chose Carol Machovec as his queen for the special event of the year - the Junior Prom. The theme was "Around the World" and the dance was a huge success. Our "sweethearts" chosen for this year of 1957 were Nancy Ravenscroft and James Greeley. Now as this memorable year passed, we found there was just one more year left and we would be finished with our high school careers.

In the fall of 1958 we proudly pushed open the doors of H. H. S. and walked in as seniors. No one was to look down on us this year. We chose experienced officers. They were Don Fronk, president; Lawrence Filter, vice-president; Nancy Ravenscroft, secretary; and Francis Sinkule, treasurer. We were represented in Student Council by Carol Braithwaite and James Greeley. This year the king and queen of Homecoming were our representatives, Joyce Herbeck and Budde Fitch. The next thing on our agenda was the yearbook and we vowed it would be the best annual we could possibly make.

Under the expert guidance of Jim Greeley, the editor, and the hard work of the staff we completed our annual. Our Prom representatives were Carol Braithwaite and Don Fronk.

Then on May 22nd. we sadly walked through the doors of Hillsboro High School as students for the last time. When we proudly walked across the stage to receive our diplomas, we said goodbye to our familiar surroundings. Our four years at Hillsboro High School were just an echo in the past.

PROPHECY

A LETTER TO MAMA

Dear Mama,

Yesterday I broke down and went to a fortune teller to find out what will be happening to me and my classmates in the next ten years. It sure was surprising to hear some of the things Madame Georgette predicted - they'll just slay you! She looked into her crystal ball and began her prophesying:

One year has passed and Lyle Shaker has made his first million by printing money for the government. In ten years he will be lending it back to them with interest.

Frank Stekel has been spending most of his time in a scientific henhouse analyzing Professor Goober's question, "Which came first, the chicken or the egg?"

Lawrence Filter is situated at Cape Canaveral, Florida, developing a two-seater rocket so he can take Bridgette Bardot on his outer space exploration. (I imagine it'll have scientific bearings.)

Steve Subera has made the major leagues in three years, and in four years he and his wife, Carol Machovec, will be well on their way to the Junior New York Yankees with a ball-boy, bat-boy, water-boy, and 0-boy! (I hope the next one's not a girl.)

Oh! I spy David Clausius, Ben Wopat, and Earle Robinson on the deep dark continent of Africa. David is a Missionary and his tactics for conversion have really worked - he does the cha-cha before every service.

Ben Wopat is busy buying shrunken heads from the cannibals. His only hope is that he doesn't end up buying his own.

Earle has just captured another lion; however, it is rumored he has better luck on his safaris than on his love ventures - he serenades his pet pelican.

Ah, ha! Now I see Darrell Durkee, former All-Star football player, is presently the president of the Potato Peelers Union.

Buddie Fitch, known as "Chief Exterminator", has been evacuating the bug kingdom; his theory is "Little Things Mean a Lot."

Doris Stanek and Geneva Winchell have developed a new type of shorthand. The only flaw in it is that it can't be written faster than ten words per minute.

Sharon Lorch has just started her own dancing school for "people who'd rather sit this one out."

I now see a dress shop owned by Mary and Barbara DeChant. This is a very special shop; they are doing very well in creating dresses for prize poodles who do hula dances at dog shows.

Joan Blaha has become famous by making a great many speeches on the intrinsic value of being quiet in the classroom.

As I gaze further into my crystal ball, adding a few tea leaves here and there, I see that Josephine Lange, who wanted to go into the singing profession, has fulfilled her ambition - she's the new recruit for the Salvation Army Band. Lorene Johnson and Beverly Waldron have also joined this Army Band. Lorene plays her accordian and Beverly plays her guitar.

Paul Stanek has gained the title of, "The Thinking Man of the Universe." You see, he has been advertising Viceroy's for quite a number of years.

David Sparkman and Virginia Eastman have really hit it off splendidly. Yesterday they finished naming their quintuplets Herman, Helmet, Herbie, Hector, and Charlie.

Francis Sinkule is known throughout the West as an excellent brush salesman. His card reads "Have Toothbrush Will Travel."

Now I see Leona Fisher, Judy Heding, and Elaine Sebranek as models at the Mansford Clothing Store, modeling Jansen's Beddie-Bye Sleepers.

Jerry Ellis has a steady job with Charles Atlas, working as his muscleman.

Shirley Durkee, Joan Preslik, and Karen Shear all have similar occupations - Shirley cans, Joan labels, and Karen seals Roundy's Round Ground Cherries.

James Greeley has just finished his portrait entitled "You Name It" for the Nation Wide Advertising Company.

Gordon Fick is very busy as a criminal lawyer - he is now trying to solve the case of "Did Sam Johnson actually beat his loving wife to death with a pop bottle, or did the coca-cola man?"

Jean and Mary Pliner have just succeeded in winning the Olympics swimming meet. This way, in doing it together, they can finish in half the time required.

Judy Zahn's greatest ambition is to raise Arabian horses. Her ambition has almost been fulfilled - she's now raising Argentian Donkeys.

Richard Verbsky and John Shaker are both frogmen for the U. S. Navy. Their only draw back is that neither one of them can swim.

Shirley Hooker is a professor at Tellson's University for girls. She has majored in Zoology and is now lecturing on the proper way to handle wolves!

Janice Mitchell, Judy Nelson, Joyce Herbeck, and Pat Breidenstein have started their own Rest Home. Their only difficulty is that the people that come to rest don't need it.

Don Fronk's future is a venturous one - you've heard of traveling salesman? Well, Don's a traveling hobo.

Bill Turnipseed has just started a rootbeer stand near Custer's Last Stand. His speciality is Custers' Custard Cone.

Carol Braithwaite, Donna Parkhurst, and Nancy Ravenscroft are working as policewomen for the Hodge-Podge Police Force. They patrol Persuasion Woods.

Dick Lewis has made the newspaper headlines. He is to be the first man into outer space. He passed his tests with flying colors, but on the way to the rocket he panicked and couldn't go through with it. Why? Because he would miss Mickey Mouse on Channel 3 on Saturday morning.

Well, Mama, that's it, the whole story. I'm sure you will agree that everyone of these people is great in his own way.

Love and stuff,

Your Dearest Darling
